

Requirements for texting and calling out of Law Ruler

The telecom industry has imposed stringent regulations on businesses engaging in text messaging and outbound calls to prospects and clients. It's essential to understand that these regulations, known as TCPA regulations, are industry-wide mandates rather than directives imposed solely by Law Ruler. To ensure compliance, Law Ruler diligently follows the TCPA regulations set by mobile providers, collaborating closely with one of the largest telecom providers dedicated to keeping our clients in adherence.

To enable text messaging and calling with Law Ruler, please fulfill the following requirements:
